

Name: _____ Date: _____

Sakshi Gopal: A witness For The WeddingChoose the correct answer

The old Brahmin was so pleased with the young man service that he promised to give

- his daughter in marriage
- half of his wealth
- some gift
- good clothes

The Brahmins oldest son advised him to say that

- he will not give his daughter in marriage
- he will give him some wealth in place of his daughters hand
- he doesn't remember anything
- he is going to break his promise

The young man felt pain because

- the girls brother refused to give his sister in marriage to him
- the brother broke his religious principle of truthfulness
- the old Brahmin was to break his religious principle of truthfulness
- the young Brahmin broke his principle of truthfulness

Gopal said the young Brahmin that I shall walk behind you

- if you look at me I will remain fixed in that very spot
- if you do not look at me I will remain fixed at that very spot
- if you do not offer me Bhoga I will not walk
- if you do not offer obeisances to Me I will not walk

The Brahmin begged the Lord the remain in Vidyanagar to

- prove that He can walk
- prove how merciful He is to His devotees
- prove how He protected His devotees
- prove He always attends His devotees marriage

Parent's Sign: _____